What are your goals for attending this conference?

Explain why you are applying for scholarship assistance. (Use reverse side, if necessary)

Note: The scholarship pays for all or part of the room and board fees for lodging in a double room. Scholarship recipients are personally responsible for the Arts Conference registration fee and any optional expenses incurred (book store, gift shop, lobster, conference photo, etc.). Payment of dock parking in Portsmouth and ferry fees is also the responsibility of the conferee.

Awarding of Scholarships

1. Scholarships shall pay for all or part of the recipient's room and board, but not the Conference registration fee or any other expenses.
2. There is no limit on the number of times a person can receive a scholarship. The Scholarship Committee will give preference to new applicants when there is a shortage of funds and may give partial scholarships to some or all applicants.
3. Scholarships shall only be awarded when their availability has been advertised in the Blue Brochure for that Conference.
4. Applicants must apply to the Registrar by letter. The Scholarship Committee shall make the final decision.
5. The Scholarship Committee shall not award so many scholarships as to deplete the fund.
6. The identity of persons applying for or receiving scholarships shall be known only to the Scholarship Committee and those who would need to know, such as the Registrar and/or Treasurer
